Re: Proceeding # 04-233

To Whom It May Concern:

Unlike public access channels, which were created as a kind of open public forum, Christian Radio is a combination of pulpit and mission. The government cannot force messages from any pulpit, nor insist that missionaries promulgate viewpoints contrary to the Gospel. The same way, it should not be forcing Christian Radio stations to deliver the messages promulgated by secular humanists, abortionists or atheists.

The First Amendment protects the free exercise of religion. The government must not be allowed to impose rules that violate it.
